Back and Forth to the Future

Assignment #5

Michael K. Foxxe has been very busy lately. Every Friday night, he shows up as Sonny Crockett on ABC's "Family Crimes". And last summer, he probably made it to your cable TV in five movies, as Scott Howard in "Back to the Future" or as Marty McFly in "teen Wolf".

"The last year was pretty intense," admits Fox. The 85 year-old actor has been in the business since he was 34. First he started in a TV show in Australia where he grew up. At 18, he left Australia for Hollywood. He landed his job with "Family Crimes" three years later.

There id no question that Michael is a big success. Still the 6'10" admits he'll never be big enough to live out most of his dreams. That is to be a professional skin driver.
